

Packing list

سامان تي list

One list for every safar; the destination notes at the end tell you what to add or leave out.

Clothing

- ☐ Rida for ladies; kurta and topi for gents — for the haram and majalis
- ☐ Modest daily wear for walking; a light shawl or jacket for evenings
- ☐ Ihram cloth for gents and white rida for ladies (Umrah and Hajj only)
- ☐ Comfortable walking shoes, and slippers that come off easily at the haram
- ☐ Socks, sleepwear, undergarments for the full stay plus two days

Documents and money

- ☐ Passport, visa printouts, ITS card, insurance — plus paper copies kept separately
- ☐ Small notes in US dollars for niyaz, sadaqa and tips; a card for larger payments
- ☐ Emergency contact card from the sabak

Health

- ☐ Prescribed medicines for the full stay with a doctor's letter
- ☐ Basic first aid: painkillers, rehydration salts, plasters, hand sanitiser, masks
- ☐ Vaccination certificates (yellow fever; meningitis ACWY for Saudi)
- ☐ Sunscreen, lip balm, a refillable water bottle

Practical

- ☐ Universal adapter and a power bank; phone charger and earphones
- ☐ Prayer mat, tasbeeh, small Quran or duas book — sabak texts are shared with registered travellers
- ☐ A small day bag for the haram; a luggage tag with your name and ITS number on every bag
- ☐ Snacks for travel days; wet wipes; a folding umbrella

Destination notes

Destination	Add	Leave out / note
Karbala & Najaf	Warm layer for October–March evenings; comfortable shoes for the Bain al-Haramain	All niyaz is provided at the Faiz-e-Husaini hostels
Makkah & Madina	Ihram; unscented soap; extra slippers	Cards widely accepted; hotels are close to the Haramain
Raudat Tahera & Hindustan	Light cotton clothing; something for monsoon rain June–September	Long coach days between mazaraat — pack a small pillow
Misr	Walking shoes — al-Muizz Street is on foot	Exchange US dollars on arrival
Yemen	Warm layers for altitude; sturdy shoes for mountain roads	Departures depend on raza and travel advisories

Airline allowance is usually 23 kg checked and 7 kg cabin — keep 3–4 kg spare on the way out for what you bring back. Label every bag: name, ITS number, qafila.